October Meeting

Fred Dingler Will Demonstrate His Watercolors

Thursday, October 11th at 7pm

Christ Presbyterian Church

6901 Normandale Road, Edina, MN 55435

by Fred Dingler

For me, being an artist is not merely a chosen profession, it is a way of transcribing and capturing what I see in life to preserve for others to enjoy.

After graduating from The American Academy of Art in Chicago, I began a 40-year career as an advertising illustrator. In 2000, I then started my fine art career to paint things that I found interesting with meaning and beauty. Because of all the different art techniques, mediums, and subject matters I was required to do, I feel it has enhanced my personal fine art style and prepared me to be a teacher of art as well.

I am a full-time painter of 52 years and I continue to enjoy the challenges of creating art in watercolor, oil, acrylic, and pencil. I especially enjoy commission work as it involves interacting with clients to create a personal, meaningful work of art.

Please view my website to see the wide range of things that I like to capture.

From the President

Hello Artist Friends and Members!

First and foremost, thank you for having faith in my abilities to fill the role of President for the Minnesota Watercolor Society. There are definitely some big shoes to fill from past Presidents. A big thank you to our most recent President, Sonja Hutchinson, for the great job she has done as President for the last two years.

It is almost State Fair time, which means end of summer and beginning of the fall season. This also means the start of another great and interesting year of MNWS watercolor shows and monthly meetings.

To start us off, we have our Fall Member show in September at the Ames Center in Burnsville. This show takes the place of our regularly scheduled September meeting. As always we look forward to all the wonderful, creative, exciting, and diverse styles in the paintings we will see at the show. Please plan to attend the opening reception on Thursday, September 13th. See more details in this newsletter. We are grateful for the work of our Fall Show chairperson, Theresa Weseman, and the show volunteers that have worked hard in preparation for this event.

Many of our events and monthly meetings are possible because of our volunteers willing to give their time and talents. It is a great way to learn more about the watercolor society and work with some wonderful people to continue to make this a successful organization. We are in need of people to volunteer for a number of positions we currently have available. More details about these positions in this newsletter.

I look forward to this new MNWS year, and all that it has to offer!

See you soon.
Carol

Minnesota Watercolor Society

Donate Your Time and Talents

By Carol Wingard, President MNWS

The Minnesota Watercolor Society (MNWS) is a wonderful organization, and offers its members a chance to see demonstrations by a wide variety of talented painters, to exhibit their paintings in great venues around the Twin Cities, take a well-organized workshop, and just mingle, enjoy treats and coffee with friends and fellow artists once a month.

It is through the strong participation of members as volunteers to the MNWS board that ensures our organization is able to continue to provide these great offerings for all our members. The Board of Directors consists of a group of people who enjoy their position on the Board, and feel a sense of pride and fulfillment for the support they provide to the MNWS organization. Most positions run for a term of two years. We have a few Board Members whose terms have either ended or are coming due for them to roll off the board.

The position requirement is that you are willing to commit to help out, come to the monthly board meetings,* and ask questions. It is also a great way to bring forward some new ideas for making the MNWS organization even better! It's not forever, and you might surprise yourself and have a great time.

We are in need of volunteers for the following positions, and would love to hear from you if you are interested and would like more information. Each of these positions is very important in contributing to the continued success of our programs and offerings through the Minnesota Watercolor Society. If you are interested, please contact the person listed as the board member for that position in this newsletter, or contact me, Carol Wingard.

Exploring Watercolor on Yupo!

Three Day Workshop with

James Turner

October 12, 13, 14

(Friday, Saturday and Sunday)

Zeller Studio, 1421 Main Street,

Hopkins, MN 55343

Flowers by Jim Turner

This workshop will give you a variety of ways to approach this new medium YUPO. James will show you how to take advantage of the abstract, flowing 'liquid' look of wet into wet application and experiment with texturing. This surface allows colors to be more intense, giving a stained glass look that is amazing, and makes lifting easy, allowing a push-pull method of composition. He will discuss design and how to go from the crazy accidental abstraction to finished work. He will also help you tame YUPO to do representational work with flattening washes, graded washes and more. Participants can expect to complete two paintings in the three days and just have fun.

Pumpkins, by Jean Allen

AWASH IN AUTUMN: Autumn means a new season with new possibilities. Maybe you look forward to a new school year or picking your own pumpkins and apples. For some artists Autumn reminds them of harvest time in the fields. For others it's the cool evenings and changing leaves. So let's see what Autumn means to our artists through their paintings at the Fall Exhibit.

Calvin deRuyter will judge our show. Calvin is a Maple Grove artist who is known as a colorist. He has been presented with more than 2 dozen awards, and is a signature member of the Red River Watercolor Society and the Northstar Watermedia Society. In the last decade he has been in more than a dozen multi-person shows, and has had 9 one-man exhibitions. He has taught dozens of classes and workshops in the metro as well as outstate Minnesota. Calvin's paintings are exhibited in galleries in White Bear Lake, Woodbury, Rochester, and Battle Lake, as well as galleries in Fargo ND, Austin TX, and Scottsdale AZ. You can explore all of his paintings at www.CalsPortfolio.net.
